Foreword

In searching for a theme for the 1955 INDIAN HEAD, we, the Sponsors, were fascinated by the music on our campus---

The whisperings of the stately pines,
The chattering of the forest birds,
The merry voices of gay students,
The rustling of the many leaves of both.

The constant whirr-r-r-r of moving vehicles,
The deep bass rumble of streamlined trains,
The steady humming of airplanes---
All harmonizing with the melodious sounds which are the music halls on our campus.

In this we thought we sensed
a link to our ALMA MATER, and these are the sounds which we heard within

LOLETA Q. BLANKS

The dignity of a princess, combined with beauty and cheerfulness. When there is work to be done, a part in a play to be acted, a speech to be made, a meal to be cooked, a yearbook to be edited, typing to be done, a baby to be rocked, or fun to be had, Loleta is ready to do her part. Her philosophy is, "Few things are impossible to diligence and skill." Her personality and charm have made for her an indelible impression on all our hearts.

Lillian Locklear

LILLIAN F. LOCKLEAR

"THERE'S A SONG IN MY HEART."

We might call Lillian the Lily Pons of Pembroke. Of course, music is her love, business her vocation. In addition to the prominent part which Lillian has had in many extracurricular activities, she has always maintained a high average in scholarship. We will miss her soprano voice for awhile, but, it won't be long before we can "look in" and hear her melodious voice on TV.

Pauline B. Locklear

PAULINE LOCKLEAR

"THY BEAMING EYES."

Pauline is always bubbling over with something to say. Such a vocabulary would silence Marder. A transfer student from Pfeiffer, she quickly entered into the spirit of P.S.C. A wide traveler, she always holds us spellbound with her "Tales of Adventures", especially those of Cuba. Her childlike voice has become a part of us and we will always remember her for it.

Marvin Ransom

SENIOR: W.F., Vice-President, Pontiac Society, Veterans' Club, Business Manager of Indianhead, Marshal.

"MY FRIEND."

Marvin is one of those more fortunate souls who started earning while the rest of us, poor parasites, were still learning. If success depends on serious and faithful application we predict for our former class president a successful teaching career.

Patricia C. Hunt

"IN THE GLOAMING."

None but herself can be Pat's parallel. Quiet, studious, dependable, generous, Patricia goes about her study of flowers and insects. She left the loving arms of the girls' dorm to establish her own home. Our sincere wishes go with you, Pat.

Clearcie Locklear

"I LOVE LIFE."

Petite, vivacious, talkative, enthusiastic, talented Clearcie. Due to a special interest in the Freshman class, we feel that your concern about P. S. C. will not be on the wane during the next few years. Your racing footsteps will be missed in the halls, but will resound in our hearts.

Forace Oxendine

SENIOR: W.F., Emeritan, Basketball, Baseball, Social Club, Veterans' Club, Class President, Indianhead Staff.

"TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME."

Forace, our only major league baseball player, joined our ranks this year after having served in the ranks of Uncle Sam. His capacity for leadership was quickly recognized and captured by the members of the Senior class. Remember us, Forace, when you are placed in the Hall of Fame beside Marilyn's Joe.

Evie L. Oxendine

JUNIOR: W.F., International Relations Chairman, Emeritan Society, Y.W.A., El Arco Iris, Dramatics. SENIOR: W.F., International Relations Chairman, Emeritan Society, Y.W.A., Community Missionary Chairman, Dramatics, Indianhead Staff.

"DRINK TO ME ONLY WITH THINE EYES."

Quiet, modest, warmhearted, generous, sweet, smiling, and sophisticated--all these qualities and more belong to our elfin Evie. Quite a talented reader she is too. We wish for her the very best in life.

Helen E. Hammond

"CHARLIE, MY BOY."

Once a tiny girl who played "Little Sunbonnet Jane", now Helen, has her own little tots to don sunbonnets. Not only has Helen dramatic ability, she has a lovely voice and a wonderful personality. There's something very likeable about her; maybe it's her twinkling brown eyes and mischievous smile.

Mary Louise Cummings

MARY LOUISE CUMMINGS

FRESHMAN: Band, B.S.U., Emeritan, Y.W.A. SOPHOMORE: Band, Emeritan, Social Club, B.S.U. Council, Y.W.A. Council. SENIOR: B.S.U., Emeritan Society, President of Y.W.A., Secretary of Student Council, Secretary of Senior Class, Home Economics Club.

"YOU ARE MY SUNSHINE."

We readily associate the name "Louise" with Y.W.A. and with Lou Henry. Her dependability is emphasized by the many secretarial offices which she holds. Louise is one of those rare individuals who has the distinction of being "Miss Sharpe's little girl." She has won a place in the hearts of everyone by her gentle and wholesome manner.

Prestley Lowry

PRESTLEY LOWRY

JUNIOR: Social Chairman of W.F., Emeritan Society, Veterans' Club. SENIOR: Social Chairman of W.F., Emeritan Society, Veterans' Club, Art Club.

"I'M ONLY PAINTING THE CLOUDS WITH SUNSHINE."

Prestley's our artist--always laughing, spreading sunshine, and enjoying life. Who spread paint all over Miss R's best paper? Who painted the signs that dangled across the highway? Why, the artist of our class, Prestley. He not only spreads paint but cheer, and good will. He has mastered the art of making friends. His merry laughter will long re-echo through our memories.

Lou Henry Lowry

LOU HENRY LOWRY

"LITTLE THINGS MEAN A LOT."

Who is the baby of the class? Why, Lou Henry, of course. But her smallness of stature does not prevent her from keeping pace with her classmates in scholarship and college activities. Most noticeable characteristic is that genuine smile. Lou Henry and Lou-ise go together like peaches and cream. We predict big things for our baby.

Katie Lee Jones

KATIE JONES

FRESHMAN: B.S.U., Social Club, Emeritan Society, Basketball. SOPHOMORE: B.S.U., Social Club, Emeritan Society, Basketball. JUNIOR: B.S.U., Social Club, Emeritan Society, Basketball, Student Council. SENIOR: B.S.U., Social Club, Emeritan Society, Home Economics Club.

"I'M FALLING IN LOVE WITH SOMEONE."

"A PRETTY GIRL IS LIKE A MELODY."

"GONE ARE THE DAYS WHEN MY HEART WAS YOUNG AND GAY."

If you want to find Joyce, just look in the Spanish room, her second home. But Spanish is not her only love; she received her M.R.S. a few days after having completed her B.A. Joyce is always a faithful and loyal member to both her ideals and her class.

"THERE'S SOMEBODY WAITING FOR ME."

Ralph has the rare distinction of being the only bachelor of the class. In scholarship he is tops and his popularity is shown by the many offices which he heads. He is the one on whom we can depend to solve all our problems. He is quite studious and yet he has a fun-loving and frolicsome nature when occasion demands.

"FOR HE'S A JOLLY GOOD FELLOW."

We haven't seen as much of Claude as we would like, but judging by his grades he would put most of us to shame. Reports are that he is an excellent teacher. But, we think of him as the boy who had to stay after school--in extension classes.

Dorothy Coker Oxendine

DOROTHY C. OXENDINE

A teacher in the public schools.

"BEAUTIFUL DREAMER."

If you want to know anything about Texas, ask Dorothy-- the Lone Star state is only second to the "Tar Heel" state which she chose some years ago. Dorothy has managed to rear a family, teach and get her B. A. all at the same time. Some work, Dot. We admire you for it.

The Faculty Club at Pembroke State College was organized in the fall of 1942. The club received its real impetus under the guidance and leadership of Dr. R. D. Wellons who, that same year, had been elected president of the college.

The officers of the club consist of a president and a secretary-treasurer. The president appoints a program committee, and this committee selects speakers from the faculty who express a willingness to share their experiences and research topics with the group. The club meets the first Saturday of the month. Refreshments are served after the talk of the evening and a social hour follows.

Enthusiasm for the club and its activities has grown with the years.

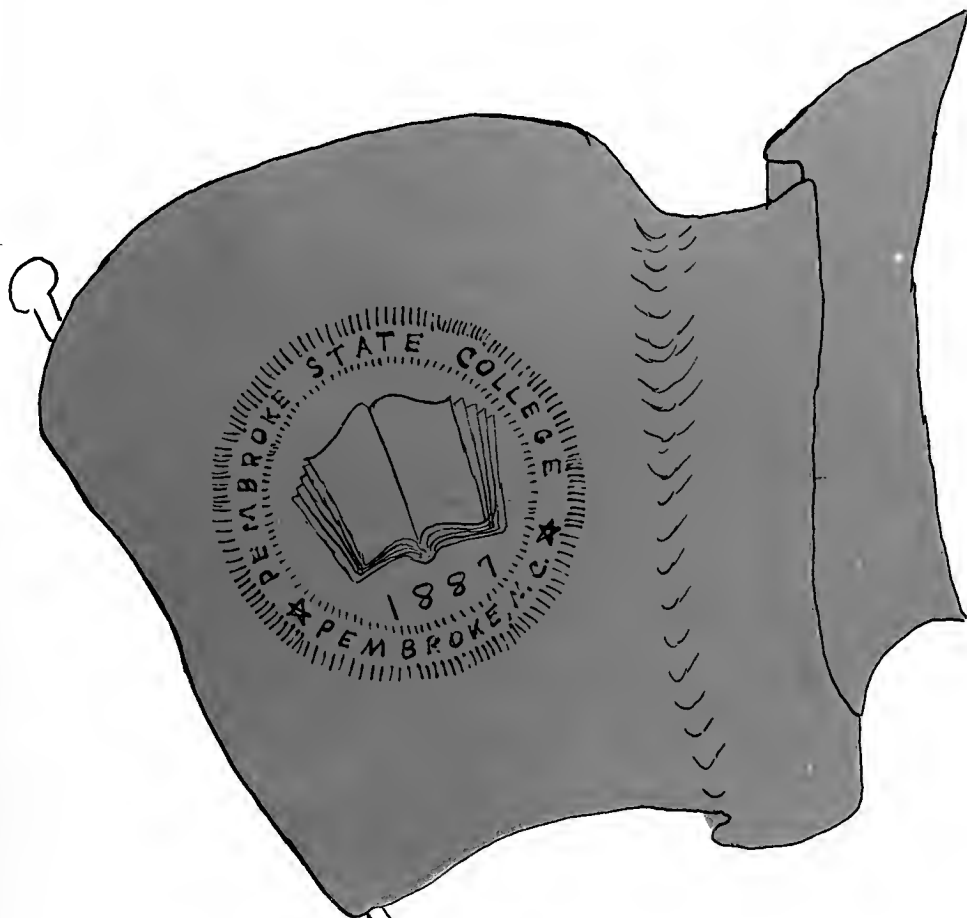

The purpose of the student council is to encourage and promote the development of personal honor, integrity, scholarly achievement, and a genuine sense of civic responsibility in all those who matriculate at P.S.C.

Past presidents have been Fred Lowry, Cleo Maynor, Barto Clark, Henry Smith, Thadis Oxendine, Elrie Locklear and Martin L. Lowry, Jr. The student council was organized in 1948.

"Get interested in someone beyond yourself."
"In Jesus everything is opportunity if you know how to use it."

Religious Emphasis Week has become a tradition on the P.S.C. campus. We were particularly fortunate this year to have as our leader, Dr. E. Stanley Jones, world-wide evangelist.

The Wellons' and Jones' were associated in their work in India. The coming to us of Dr. Jones was a result of the outgrowth of this friendship.

We feel that this week was the highlight of this school year,

A personal word to the members of the graduating class: Don't go out to be leaders. Go out to be servants. And then the servant of all becomes the greatest of all. Leadership comes from serving the people.

Become the servants of your own people and then the country. Find some place of need and meet that need. Demonstrate in the little some thing big. Do the little thing in a big way. And as you are faithful in the little you will be made ruler of the much.

To get strength & vision to serve keep the Quiet Time each day. Pause with your Bible & prayer each day and get direction & power for the day. Then you will go out with a sense of mission. A Hand will be on your shoulder & all you do will have a Divine Plus added to it.

Your Friend & His Stanley Jones.

My God and I

My God and I go in the field together,
We walk and talk as good friends should--
and do,
We clasp our hands, our voices ring with laughter,
My God and I walk through the meadow's hue.

He tells me of the years that went before me,
When heavenly plans were made for me to be,
When all was but a dream of dim conception,
To come to earth, life's verdant glory
see.

My God and I will go for aye together,
We'll walk and talk, and jest as good friends do,
This earth will pass, and with it common trifles,
But God and I will go unendingly.

Unafraid

I will not be afraid,
I will not be afraid,
I will look upward,
And travel onward,
and not be afraid.

He says He will be with me.
He says He will be with me.
He goes before me,
And is beside me,
so I'm not afraid.

His arms are underneath me.
His arms are underneath me.
His hand upholds me,
His love enfolds me,
so I'm not afraid.

His Word will stand forever.
His Word will stand forever.
His truth it shall be
My shield and buckler,
so I'm not afraid.

He will give grace and glory.
He will give grace and glory.
His cross before me,
His banner o'er me,
so I'm not afraid.

He says He will do marvels.
He says He will do marvels.
Above our asking,
Or even thinking,
so look up and praise.

So we go singing onward.
So we go singing onward.
We're pressing upward,
We're marching Homeward, to Him, unafraid.

Greater Than The Temple Is Here

E. Stanley Jones

For now 'mid temple walls
A hush upon us falls;
A Presence drawing near
Greater than the Temple's here.

For holding varied creeds,
We all are drawn by common needs,
And the Savior doth appear—
Greater than our need is here.

We come with burdens, anxious
Which our hearts and weigh our prayers;
But His grace comes to banish fear—
A Greater than our cares is here.

Conscious of failure and of sin,
Without, but more within
A sense of guilt we would be near—
Greater than our guilt is here.

We know with future veiled, unknown;
The one we know is on the throne:
Those stormy days be brown and sere,
A Greater than our future's here.

Nor past, nor future; naught shall bring
The sense of sadness when we sing;
Strong in His grace we persevere—
A Greater than all things is here!

Unborn youth will take our places
To praise thee endlessly---

FRANCIS LAVERGNE JOHNSON
Professional Photographer

The fella' sailing across the campus with the shoulder bag is none other than our beloved student photographer, Edmond. A wonderful job he did of being "Johnny-on-the-spot" when things were happening. Thanks a million!

EDMOND LOCKLEAR, JR.
Student Photographer

Thank you, Lavergne, for the excellent service which you have rendered in making and delivering individual pictures and the special attention which you gave to each one. It has now become a tradition that we greet you on our campus each fall, and that you select the campus king and queen. We look forward to your coming.

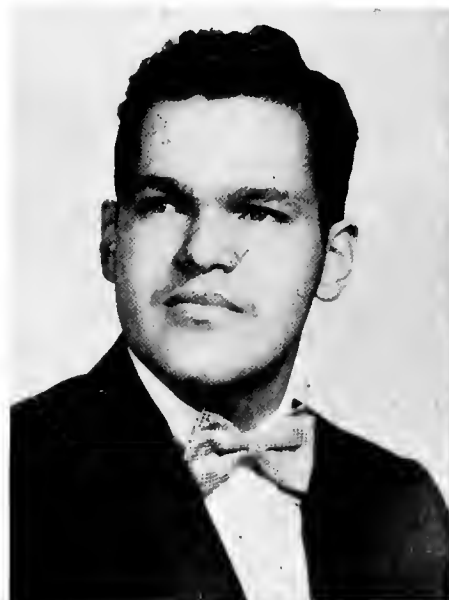

ELMER HUNT
Pembroke Photographer

Thank you, Elmer, for taking, developing, and enlarging the majority of our pictures. Without your assistance and kind co-operation, the 1955 INDIANHEAD would have been impossible. Many long hours you have devoted to us this year. Your wife says that during this trying period, she has become a "Photographer's Widow". We are quite sympathetic and more appreciative.

LEVI HUNT, JR.
Student Photographer

Levi's imagination knows no bounds when it comes to doing the unusual in snapping pictures. He is guilty of climbing the water tower, hopping the bus, and even swinging on top of OLD MAIN, in order to gain the desired vantage point to focus on his victims.
